

“Host a Seminarian” Weekend

On the weekend of January 7 and 8, seminarians will be traveling to parishes throughout the Diocese to share their vocation stories and especially encourage other young people to answer the call of God in their lives. Each of the seminarians will prepare a five minute reflection to be offered following the Prayer after Communion at all of the weekend Masses.